

'SHOOT IT!' YOUTH JURY
SUPPORTED BY 'THE IRISH EXAMINER'

What is the Youth Jury?

The Youth Jury consist of six members aged between 16 - 18yrs. The Jury attend screenings of films for the festival week (October 10th - 17th 2004) and deliberate a winner of the much sought after award, the Shoot it! Youth Jury Award.

Competition

Details will also be available from our Sponsor 'The Irish Examiner'.

Write a review of any film you want in up to 300 words, then send it in to The Cork Film Festival. The best written reviews will be selected by Ian Kilroy (Arts Editor, 'The Irish Examiner') & Eoin Ó Catháin (Cork Film Festival, Education Officer) to be part of our Youth Jury.

The Youth Jury will attend screenings and decide which short they feel deserves the 'Shoot it' Youth Jury Award. The Screenings will happen from October 10th - 17th. So if you get accepted you will need to clear your calendar for the week.

The best entry we receive will write a festival and personal diary to be published after the festival in 'The Irish Examiner'.

So what are the rules about entry.

- You need to be between the ages of 16 - 18yrs
- Application are open to residents of the Rep. Of Ireland and Northern Ireland.
